

Pen or Pencil by Da'Jon Carouthers

A pencil of course.

I have and will erase bad habits and traits that I've become accustomed to. And by me being a pencil and not a pen, I can start fresh at things and you'll never know of the things I've erased unless I tell you. I guess you can say I have a good eraser. Just writing this I've erased 3 times. I sometimes tend to start things without putting much thought into it so I have to start over.

Thank God for erasers. To sum it all up -

Pencil are temporary and Pens are permanent. And Everyone deserves a second chance.
