Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Hinda Institute on your Justice and Compassion event. The Hinda Institute is a pillar in our community, and I am grateful for the invaluable work you do in Illinois 10th Congressional District and throughout our Jewish community. Navigating the complexities of the criminal justice system and the process of re-entry into society is incredibly challenging, and the steadfast support Hinda provides for those who need it most is truly commendable.

I would also like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to today's distinguished honorees: Aviva Miriam Pratt, Nick Seidel, Rahmiel Hayyim Drizin, Barbara Belsky, Barry Sheppard, and Adam Sheppard. This recognition is well-deserved and serves as a testament to your tireless dedication to bettering our community.

Although I regret that I am unable to attend your event, please accept my gratitude for your contributions to our community. I am confident that your Justice and Compassion event will be both impactful and inspiring!

Sincerely,
